

Free Homeowner Association Board Member Certification Course

Thursday, November 21st

VERO BEACH — Kaye Bender Rembaum, a leading Florida community association law firm with offices in Broward and Palm Beach counties, has announced that Jeffrey Rembaum, Esq. and Gary Pyott, President of HOA/Garden-Style for FirstService Residential, will host a Free Homeowner Association Board Member Certification Course on Thursday, Nov. 21, from 2-4:30 p.m. at the Bethel Creek House, located at 4405 Hwy. A1A in Vero Beach.

The first half hour is for registration and refreshments.

"This course satisfies the State of Florida's new educational requirement for newly elected or appointed board members to fulfill within 90 days of taking office, which was established during the 2013 legislative session," said Rembaum.

"Our courses are an excellent opportunity for board members to obtain the information necessary for efficiently and effectively operating a homeowner association and can be taken up to one year in advance," Rembaum added.

Attendees will receive valuable information from course presenter Jeffrey Rembaum regarding critical aspects of community association operations, including roles and responsibilities of board members, meeting and quorum requirements, financial reporting, assessments and foreclosure, elections, etc.

Space is limited; reservations are required.

Interested attendees should contact Dawn Lamberth by email at Dawn.Lamberth@FSResidential.com or by calling (772) 562-9031, ext. 2145.

Kaye Bender Rembaum is a full service commercial law firm concentrating on the representation of more than 800 community associations throughout Florida.
